RE: Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) – District of Columbia Request to Waive Able-Bodied Adults Without Dependents Time Limit – Rescission and Reissue (Partial Approval)

Dear Interim Administrator Campbell:

This is in response to the District of Columbia Department of Human Services' (DHS) January 8, 2025, request to continue to waive the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) time limit for able-bodied adults without dependents (ABAWDs). The attached waiver response includes the approved areas, the supporting evidence used, and the conditions of approval.

The Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) has reevaluated its policy surrounding two-year ABAWD waiver approvals to align with FNS' clear expectation that those who can work, do. To align with this policy, FNS is no longer approving two-year ABAWD waivers. Additionally, FNS is rescinding all two-year waivers and reissuing them as one-year waivers. This includes rescinding the District of Columbia's current two-year waiver, approved for January 1, 2025, through December 31, 2026, and reissuing it as a one-year waiver, effective January 1, 2025, through December 31, 2025.

By limiting the length of ABAWD waivers to a timeframe explicitly provided for by regulation, FNS can better ensure waivers do not extend beyond the circumstances that initially justified them.

ABAWDs may fulfill the ABAWD work requirement in several ways including by engaging for at least 80 hours a month in a work program. The SNAP Employment and Training (E&T) program is one of many ways that ABAWDs can meet this requirement and helps SNAP participants gain skills and find work that moves them toward self-sufficiency. Connecting participants to DHS' SNAP E&T program supports our shared goal to lift millions of Americans out of dependency and into hopeful futures.

FNS also reminds the State agency that it must measure the 3-year period and track ABAWDs on a continuous basis, even in areas under a waiver. The State agency must continue tracking so that the State agency will be ready to transition off the waiver when it expires and reintroduce the time limit.

Please contact your Regional Office representative with any questions.

Sincerely,

Sasha Gersten-Paal
